TASTING NOTES

Timo Mayer is a small producer of hand crafted, single vineyard wines (in Yara Valley, Victoria). He believes that wines are made in the vineyard and with as little interference as possible. His aim? To make wines with a point of difference, or in Timo's words... Bring back the funk.

94+/100 Mike Bennie, The Wine Front, February 2020 (2019 Vintage)

"About 25% of this is whole bunch. Dark colours from 2019. Dark flavours. Close-planted section of the vineyard. Dark choc-cherry scents, aromas of wet slate, a touch of smoke and dried green herb characters. Chewy in the palate, mouthwatering acidity, light cherry characters, more of the smoke and green herbs. Something about the wine says 'autumnal' to me here. Quite a powerful style too. Very good."
