TASTING NOTES

65% Tempranillo, 25% Garnacha, 5% Graciano & 5% Mazuelo

95/100 James Suckling (2010 Vintage)

"Cubillo is a very focused and quite crisp style of red that has spent three years in barrique and then in larger cask to wait for bottling, which happens two years before the expected release. The richness and depth of complex dried wood and spice here is seamlessly sewn into the dried red and dark cherries. The palate is pinned around a fresh-blackberry core that marries still sweet fruit to more savory style. Long and balanced. The tannins are fine yet assertive. It freshens into the finish nicely. Drink or hold."

93/100 Robert Parker's The Wine Advocate (2010 Vintage)

"The 2010 Viña Cubillo Tinto Crianza is superb and shows great depth and nuance, with great freshness, and the red cherries are complemented by notes of blood oranges, nutmeg and other spices. It has a soft and harmonious palate, with great balance and very good freshness."

91/100 Tim Atkin MW (2010 Vintage)

"Cubillo, like Tondonia and Bosconia, is a single vineyard wine that's always sold as a Crianza but can "keep for 20 years", according to María José López de Heredia. Made with a classic blend of Tempranillo with 25% Garnacha and 10% Mazuelo and Graciano, it has mint and dried herb notes and a patina of sweet vanilla oak."
