"Soft and syrupy. Sweet and delicious. Fresh to go with it. This is a medium-weight red that feels eager-to-please at every step. There's nothing complex about it but it drinks easily and well. A clove-like aftertaste is an attractive complement to the sweet fruit of the palate."

4 ½ Stars, Top 10 & Best Buy, Cuisine Shiraz Tasting, August 2020 (2018 Vintage)

"Bright and fresh yet rich and brooding, Faith is the hallowed product of beloved old Barossan vines. Red fruit, plums and dark berries combine amid the generous and complex palate. Pepper spice combines with baking spice complimenting the ripe fruit and rich tannins. Unashamedly Barossa and justifiably proud."

NZIWS (2016 Vintage)

"It's saturated with blackberry, plum jam, smoky bacon and spicy oak characters, backed by an impressively weighted palate that's energetic and satisfying."

Sue Courtney, wineoftheweek.com (2016 Vintage)

"Deep purple in the glass, inky and intense. Ripe red and black berries and leather fill the bouquet that's laced with chocolate and woody spices and it's stellar and structured in the palate with reasonably firm tannins that have a supple velvet-coated edge. The mouthfilling flavours exude smoky oak, hints of bacon, leather, spices and an amalgam of ripe berry fruit including plums, mulberries and cherries, and the finish is long and satisfying."
